

Branch of Yagotynsky butter-processing plant «Yagotynske for children» — is a unique for Ukraine separately built specialized plant producing milk products for children. The new plant is equipped with the most modern equipment of leading producers from all over the world. The plant produces a full range of dairy products for children from 6 months under the trademark «Yagotynske for children.»

It is located in Kyiv region (village Zgurovka), near the Yagotynsky butter-processing plant, which has over 55 years of experience in producing exceptionally natural and healthy dairy products of the highest quality. The plant is located in a picturesque area of Zgurivsky park, which is a national park-monument of landscape architecture and one of the largest arboretums Ukraine.

Branch of Yagotynsky butter-processing plant «Yagotynske for children» is a part of the «Milk Alliance» holding.

Dairy products for children by TM «Yagotynske for children» are produced by a unique recipe based on taste preferences of children. The special features of the new brand of dairy products for children are: fructose instead of sugar, safe and healthy glass containers with a convenient and reusable cover, and only natural fruits and vegetables, typical for our region and certified for baby food production. The products of TM «Yagotynske for children» contain nothing, but natural farm milk, bacteria ferments and fruits.